

Odense Occasional Osteology Seminar (OOOS) no. XXXV

Preliminary schedule:

Time: Thursday, October 6th 2016, 09.25 – 15.15

Place: ADBOU, Lucernemarken 20, 5260 Odense S

Excavation of human skeletal remains

- | | |
|---------------|--|
| 9.25 - 9.30 | Welcome |
| 9.30 - 9.55 | Michael Bjerregaard and Kirsti Pedersen, Odense Bys Museer: Archaeological excavation of human bones – an example. Methods, approach, collection and possible loss of data |
| 9.55 - 10.20 | Lars Agersnap Larsen, Viborg museum: Sct. Hans church and cemetery in Viborg – excavation, considerations and challenges |
| 10.20 - 10.45 | Inger Marie Hyldgaard, Museum Østjylland: A churchyard from Tjærby excavated in annual campaigns over 14 years |
| 10.45 - 11.00 | Coffee break |
| 11.00 - 11.25 | Morten Søvsø, Sydvestjyske museer: Excavations at S. Mary's Cathedral in Ribe – Recording and understanding a cemetery with a lifespan of 1000 years and what to do with it afterwards. |
| 11.25 - 11.50 | Annetette Kjærgaard, Museum Sydøstdanmark: Title to be announced |
| 11.50 - 12.30 | Lunch |
| 12.30 - 13.55 | Peter Tarp, Unit of Anthropology (ADBOU), University of Southern Denmark: Estimating age at death from skeletons |
| 12.55 - 13.20 | Lilian Skytte, CHART, University of Southern Denmark: Chemical composition of decayed soft tissue |
| 13.20 - 13.45 | Svenja Weise, Unit of Anthropology (ADBOU), University of Southern Denmark: Reference samples – the need for known age and sex collections |
| 13.45 - 14.00 | Coffee break |
| 14.00 - 14.25 | Jesper Boldsen, Unit of Anthropology (ADBOU), University of Southern Denmark: Analyzing the special aspects of cemetery use – The examples from the Löddeköpinge and Tirup cemeteries. |
| 14.25 - 14.50 | George R Milner, Department of Anthropology, Penn State University: Archaeological Skeletons in the United States: Excavation, Collections, and Reburial |
| 14.50 - 15.15 | Discussion and final words |